DID YOU KNOW?

The United States Declaration of Independence was created June-July, 1776, and was ratified on July 4, 1776. The engrossed copy is located in the National Archives, and the rough draft is located in the Library of Congress. The most famous version of the Declaration, a signed copy that is popularly regarded as the official document, is displayed at the National Archives in Washington, D.C. This engrossed copy was ordered by Congress on July 19, and signed primarily on August 2nd. 56 delegates to the Continental Congress signed the Declaration for the sole purpose of announcing and explaining separation from Great Britain.
